

Do you know your great-grandfather's father's first name?

Imagine what it would be like to get a letter from him.

What would he have told you?
What could he have told you?

Now, what would you tell your family?
What should you tell them?

But, how can you tell them?

Wright & Associates can help provide you with a Family Legacy Will (FLW)

Also known as an “ethical will,” a FLW is not a legal document, but it is an important part of your Estate Plan, for your family.

Your FLW can bequeath to your family your personal history and family stories, values and beliefs and your hopes for their future.
